ATLANTA, GEORGIA:.....JULY 10.

CITY COUNCIL.—The proceedings of the City Council, in the Morning Edition, will be found unusually lengthy and interesting.

PERSONAL.—We have had the pleasure of calls from A. B. S. Mosely, editor of the "Rising Star," in Oxford, Ala., and our worthy Georgia confrere, Mr. Willingham, editor of that one of our best State Weeklies, the LaGrange Reporter.

The Covington Enterprise gives an account of an important public meeting, in Newton county, to discuss the fence question. The committee appointed conclude their report as follows:

We see that, under the present system, the cost of unnecessary fencing added to its other evils, would purchase, at five dollars per acre, three-fourths of the whole plantation, and that their annual expense amounts to more than the value of the whole pasturing stock. When to these irrefragable facts are added the time lost in making and repairing fences which might be profitably employed in gathering manure piles to enrich the soil, the wear and tear of mules and wagons, and destruction of the forest, we strongly recommend the discontinuance of fences, and the enactment of a stock law, suited to the necessities of the times and the interests of the people.

Committee—A. Livingston, H. Quigg, A. L. Davidson, L. F. Livingston, and C. T. Zachry.

No vote was taken at present. A motion was made and carried that every county be requested to express views, to enlighten and instruct the Legislature.

Clever people like those of Atlanta, can always secure good able men to address them on such occasions, as they treat their guests like princes, and make their stay among them as pleasant and agreeable as the most fastidious gentleman could desire. SKETCHES FROM LIFE.

In the first number of the "XIX century," a new periodical issued at Charleston and conducted by F. G. DeFontaine, who will be remembered as the best of Southern war correspondents under the nom de plume of "Personne," we find a series of "sootygraphs," giving counterfeit, but life-like presentments of the colored heroes, statesmen and scholars, who now rule in South Carolina. They are so striking and so suggestive—they indicate in a style so homely and graphic the tendency of the times under Radical auspices—that we copy them.

The people of the Northwest can survey the prospect as given below and form their own conclusions as to the condition of affairs when the Hon. Plenty Small sits in the Senate, the Hon. Scipio Scraggs is chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, and the Hon. Tony Johnson is member of some future Radical Cabinet. We give a picture of each with a sample of his oratory.

REV. & HON. PLENTY SMALL.

Mr. Spekir: I dis'gree to gree wid de las gem'lum. De sloobrity ob his remark, sho dat he hab not tuch de kurnel of de subjic, an hab been too explosib in de lustrashun by de fac. He dun say tings I 'gree wid in de abstrac. and de member frum de sea island hab 'spress idees wich I tink troo in de conscrip; but de grate question hab ben los site ob in de debate on kurrupahun ob de public plunder. Soshul qwality, sah, am de inference ob pregidis wid de onsartainty ob be skin, an peddigram of mankine. Dat Adam an Ebe was cullud pusons, in de rigtashun, all de gografums am klare, an ef dey only a mine de Lord, an stuk to de watermilluns, mushmilluns, matises an sich, dat grode in de gard'n, de race dun stay black to dis day. But Ebe mus go an meddle and git de country in a fuss. She eat de apple, an wen de Lord cum round callin "you Ebe! you Adam!" Adam hab a big skeer, an de ooman tuk de bush, an fur de fust time in de wurl keep still. Den de Lord git mad an bleech Adam an Ebe wite in 'bout too minit 'ahaf, an all de chilluns Cain'tuk de same cullur since. But, Mr. Spekir, de black am in dar still. It sho in de loll wite mens on dis flo', an de blush on de cheek ob de fair sec ob the op'sit race, am only de faint streke ob de rich cullur wich de Lord 'llow to stay. Das de sense ob de hole queshun sah, and wen de peeple onderstan um, de soshul qwality will hab de rec'nishun widout de law, an black be allers konsider de beseet cullur fur stan de climit ob dis country.

II.

HON. SCIPIO SCRAGGS.

Formerly owned in Charleston. Heavy on Finance, and very Logical, but Spoiled, in the Making.

Yer see, sah, dat Quinance—I dunno wedder de wud am 'greeble to youre onderstandin—mean dat de talles' pole knock down de simmon. We am de talles' pole; dardo we hol' de money bag. Two class ob pussons mek de people—dem as pays, an dem as don't; dem as mek de law, an dem as foot de bill. We dat mek de law, mek de tax. Now de white folks hab de lan', de cow, de sheep and dog; we hab nuttin. Darfo, M'ss'r Spekir, dem as own de property mus pay for dem as does de bisness ob de country. Das Quinance!

Now, sah, I hab name to de Chairman ob kommittee, dat dis hon'ble body am titled to nine dollar pur dyum, wid de writ'n paper an inkstan trown in. Wha' fo? Bekase we mek mo' law dan de Congress, an bekase, ef I onderstan any sing ob what we is yeer 'gage fur do, de grate queshun am, how fur git de money to pay we 'spenses yeer, an hab enuf to las' till we kum back. I mobe de mendment onto de bill.

III.

HON. TONEY JOHNSON.

Invaluable about a Stable. Youthful and Patriotic, but very Indiscreet.

Ms'r Speakah, I rises to appint de order. De gempleman on de oppusishun go confumerin round yere every time de queshun ob pay an tax ben konsider. Now, sah, I lub ole Souf Carolina, frum de piney wood whar de sun rise, to de mash whar he go down. I lub ole moss's'n missus, an when dese cullud pussums kum yere frum de Norf like do crow fur eat de corn, and leabe nuttin' fur we but de husk and shuck, I gwine to lif' my woice to de point ob order. Wha's de sense ob de ting? Ef dey wote fur a kandydate dey ax ten dollar fur dar suppote; if dey want orfis demself dey mek him an tek six to de han': ef dey hire de cluck fur do de reedin and ritin dey pay um fifty cent. for de days task an put de odd two dollar'n half in de pocket; and if dars a counterac on han to build railroad or buy de Windechester rilul, or sump'n else, bress de Lor', dey hab a finger in de pie, an ax a cleen tousand fur what dey call their in flooence. I see de gem'men in de corner git oneasy. Das' rite. When de tukkey buzzad hit, he allus flutter. De fac am, Ms'r Speekir, dat de unrilijus cullud people of Souf Carolina am done tire wid dese wamplides who eat all de plum in de pudd'n and trow de bunt crus' to we who am born an ondantified wid de sile. Dey hab eat de korn and gib we de cob to hole, too long.

IV.

JULIUS CÆSAR SUMNER,

Late a respectable Boston Barber.

Sah, de mission of de cullud man of de North in dis Legislature am to elewate de benighted and barbarous people who hab lib fur tree hundred years in de midst ob Egipshun darkness, and to make de law sich as will raise dis dear State among de constellations of de politics of de country. We hab come, sah, like de Aurorers of de mornin, wid de sword in one han' and de school book in de udder, an we hab but wun sentiment; as de poick say—awoke or asleep, ded or alibe, surwibe or perish, we lub de country. We lib on de country, and we only ax de coperation of dis house to lift Souf Carlina out ob de puddles ob infirmity on to de terrum firmum, where she stan forbermo, unquenchable as de pilgrim rock which the storm and de sunshine beat against in wain. We come, sah, wid de inspiration of Banker Hill and de pilgrim rock, to let loose de American eagle—whose song am de song of social qality, an dat wun man am good as de odder if de odder behave hisself.

V.

HON. FORTUNE FLANDERS.

Very vehement and ungrammatical.

When de gemplemun frum de Norf ober dar, trow de eagle in de face ob dis House, an pint about yere wid his long, skinny, yaller fust finger, and say wha' he gwine to do fur de "dear State" as he call um, de langridge am insultin to de onderstan'n ob dis body an mixes up de comprehension ob de queshun in a way dat make it dangerus fur im to repeat wha' he done say. Sah, wha' mek Souf Carolina dear to de gemplemun? I like to ax dat. How much he pay um. He don't pay nutt'n, Mr. Speaker. He don't pay a tax eben on de carpet-bag he fotch down 'cah to fill up wid de pickens ob de sixteen office he hole, an de udder tings dat lie roun loose. To meke de law and gib de perkisit—dat's all dese people got dere eye fix on. Da's all, Mr. Speaker. He tell de bo idol on troof when he say, dey rib on de country. But dis House if dey gwine to stan such foolishness any longer? To tek de sense ob de House, if he got enny, I move de follerin:

"Resolve, Dat de tukky buzzard of de Souf is as good a cagle as enny udder bird."

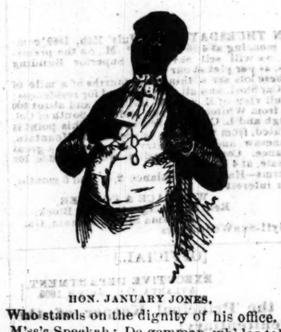
VI

HON. SANCHO. BROWN.

Late an Edisto field hand.

Sah, I ax dis house ef dey gwine to 'low de man who jis tuk his seat to stan on de flo' ob dis body and talk to de Gineral Assemboye of Souf Carlina wid dat 'tun de crank ob de universs manner dat am so superfishent an ondisgustible. Sah, I glory in de fac dat my skin hab ben bunished by de Southern sun; de same sun dat frezo de blud ob de gimpleman, an' as de book say—make de particlar har stan on end frum down east dar, biles de artery dat buns in de wains of dis buzzum. I 'cept his 'scusion ob de kestion, an answer de gimpleman, dat if the puritum rock he talk 'bout been good grazin groun for de culled man, dar nebber wud a ben a swarm ob carpet bagger comin down yeah as interlopin in our 'fair, as he say in his speech—like 'roarers to dispense de gipsum darkness and ilf de dear State 'mong de consternations ob de Norf.

VII.



HON. JANUARY JONES.

Who stands on the dignity of his office.

M'ss's Speekah: De gemman wh' las tok his seat, talk like he swallud a pint ob tuppentime. He mek a noise dat hab insensified de House. De troof meb be at de bottom ob de well, but de mo' he talk de more he stir de mud. What he know 'bout the 'ternal deprochments? De fac is dat nex to de manciphation proclimation, dis Chattam railroad bill, is wuf tousands ob dollars to de members of dis General Assemblage. An dars under contraps comin too, fur de good ob de State. It ur troo dat de rebbil papers say dis body hab bin bribe; and dat de wotes ob de hon'ble gem'mun kin be bought wid ebery ting, from a cleen shut to a tousand dollar, but I scorns de 'llusion. De policy ob de members ob dis House rise above de abstraction of de enemy outside; an, sah, we pint wid satisfaction to de extremity of de industry wich in de animation ob society, hab lifted we to de periflax ob sukkumstance wich de foes ob de loil gubbernut nebber kin conspire to reach in dere most elewated 'pectoration.

VIII.

REV. & HON. PETER BILLS.

An Old-fashioned Plantation Preacher.

Enty I done tell you dis ting fur tree munts. Enty I done warn de House befo', dat de debbil wid 'is cloben hoof were yere. Enty ye hear him to-day singin he syrom song. Enty de Demycrats swikking for de loil gubbernut, an to fil de lan wid moanin, an all de offices and sich? Sah I yere de 'larm in de win. I yere de crack ob de doom a cummin, an I ax de man wid soul so ded, dat like Esop in de good book, sell his buffright fur a mess ob patridge? Whar am he? Pint him out, and bumby you see him trabblin down to de place whar de soun ob de weepin and walling among de traitors ob de party ring in de ear frum one end of eternity to de udder. Stick togedder. De bottom rail on top; while he stay dere, united as de wave of de sea, de confumations of de Demycrats, wid der Kuklux will las' in wain.

IX

HON. CUDJO HARDSENS.

An old-time Darkey, sensible but slightly weak in the knees. Another lamentable "ruin."

It stan fur tru dat de bottom rail am on de top now, but wen de smash kum, who gwine tek kare o' we? Whars de cullud man gwine ef de State hab fur konsider. De emygrashun am kummin in fas, and de cullud popylashun am dyin, an dyin, an tendin funeral. In two or tree yeer, de people dat own de lan' will mek de law, an dem dat now hole de joocy orfices an snap de party whip roun' de leg ob we pore members ob dis House, an pull de wool ober our eye, will be trablin back to de Norf wid dar pockit stuff full ob State bons and greenback. Wha' kum ob we den? I like to ax dat. I enty ben born in de wood to be skere by no owl, but I tink I see de writin on de wall, an ef he be troo, de dooty ob ebery Souf Calina gen'lum on dis flo' am to stan frum ondur.

AN EDITOR'S LETTER

—TO—

DR. J. M. FOSTER

[Offices in Empire Block.]

CURE OF CATARRH.

FROM D. W. RAY, ESQ.,

Associate Editor of the Jackson Citizen, formerly Editor of the Rochester [N. Y.] Democrat, late of the Editorial corps of the Advertiser and Tribune, of Detroit, Michigan.

SIR:—Your favor of recent date, making inquiries as to the effect of your treatment in my case, was duly received. In reply to your questions, I would say that I was seriously afflicted with an aggravated Catarrh for a number of years past, discharging a thick, offensive, disagreeable mucous from my head almost constantly. At night, or when lying down, it was most annoying. When lying upon my back the thick mucous would drop down my throat, causing labored breathing and great distress and uneasiness, which rendered my nights restless and fatiguing. My throat was soon implicated in the general disease, and subjected to long and alarming attacks of soreness, which lasted for months together, during each returning winter. My general health was very much impaired, and the depression of spirits consequent upon my failing strength, while the undermining of my former vigor of health, caused me serious apprehensions. I tried remedy after remedy, "Catarrh Cures," and "Catarrh Snuffs," without number, but all to no purpose. My suffering grew worse, with every succeeding winter, until I began to yield all hope of being relieved. At last, the fame of your skill and success in treating such disorders reached me, and happily, I placed myself under your treatment.

With every sentiment that the deepest feelings of gratitude can inspire, I now frankly acknowledge my thanks for your successful treatment of my case. Indeed, the relief has surprised me, and in every way exceeded even my most sanguine hopes. Under your treatment, my suffering melted away as by a charm. My head is clear, my throat is well and natural, my general health sound and robust, my spirits buoyant, and in fact, Doctor, I was never better in my life. I must not forget to confess that you have had much to contend with, beside my disease alone, for my editorial duties made me, necessarily, neglect the regular attendance to the treatment that I felt it should receive, and yet, notwithstanding my negligence, your system of treatment has done for me what no medicine has heretofore done, and I cannot speak in terms of praise too high to recommend you to those who suffer from this most disgusting and loathsome disease.

While connected with the Rochester Democrat, I learned of many cures that you effected while there, in the winter of 1863-'64. I also know of many in this State, and can, consequently, speak of you thus fully from knowledge of other cases than my own.

In conclusion, let me say that should you desire to refer to me at any time, you may do so without hesitation, and I shall most cheerfully reply to any letters, deeming it a duty no less to yourself, than to those who are afflicted, and to whom I may be a guide in directing them to the same source from which I derived such substantial relief.

Hoping to hear of your continued success, I remain, sir, truly yours,

D. W. RAY.

From Wm. Peters, Esq., of Dayton, Ohio.

DR. FOSTER—Dear Sir.—Noticing the fact that your patients report to you by letter the progress of their cases, under your most admirable system of treatment, for deafness and catarrh, allow me to add my name to your list of references, for benefits received. I had been seriously afflicted with chronic Catarrh above eight years—suffering the most intense headache, with confusion of memory, while my head was completely stopped up every morning, and my mouth filled with a most disagreeable taste. Beside all this, my appetite and bowels were irregular, and my general health much disturbed and debilitated. It was in this sad condition, I placed myself under your valuable treatment only four weeks ago, and now I rejoice to say that my bowels and appetite are regular; I can breathe freely through my head; my headache has disappeared; my memory is improved, while my general health is so far restored that I can scarcely realize my remarkable change for the better, nor too strongly advise those who suffer to apply to you at once. Truly yours,

WILLIAM PETERS.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA :::::::: JULY 11.

☞ Pond's Restaurant continues to grow in public favor. Its thorough management, and the prompt attention to visitors, are making it a desired success.

THE TRIBUNE.—The Tribune's Southern traveling correspondent arrived in Atlanta on the 1st, and wrote back a long letter. We propose next week, to give extracts from the grossly unfair effusion.

☞ Reading matter on every page.

THE SPRAGUE-CRAIG CASE.—A motion for a new trial in this case was refused, and the verdict reduced to $40,000. But the senile sultor has declined even that and taken the case up.

IRISH CHURCH BILL.—This great measure has passed, on its third reading, in the Committee of the Lords and, of course, will pass the body itself. The pressure has been too heavy to be withstood. The Lords are bitterly opposed to the Bill, but the danger to their order from resisting it, was great enough to frighten and resolutely put down a successful opposition.

Various amendments were made in committee.

The Pardoning Power.

Governor Bullock has, during his administration, exercised very freely the pardoning prerogative of his high office, and in some cases, it must be confessed, with disregard, whether intentional or not, it is not in our power to say, of the good of the State and the administration of justice.

This power of the Executive has ever been used with circumspection. After a solemn, legal adjudication of a criminal's guilt by the tedious and keen formalities of our courts, conducted with all the paraphernalia of judge, juries, counsel, new trials, writs of error, appellate tribunals, &c., the matter is supposed truthfully, to be pretty well and accurately sifted, and the chances of innocence, where a conviction has been obtained, very slim. And all Governors heretofore have regarded this Executive privilege of pardoning, as liable to be easily used to the damage of justice; and all have felt a delicacy in setting aside the solemn verdicts of courts.

They have required the most conclusive proof of injustice—they have acted only after the most exhaustive enquiry, and even then, have tremulously exercised the power.

But the present Executive seems to have acted upon a different rule. He appears to have pardoned with lavish prodigality, and after sparse, hasty and one-sided investigation; and in most cases the culprits benefitted have been negroes.

That he has abused this great and delicate power cannot be denied. How far he has done so ignorantly and under convictions of right, no one knows but himself.

It does seem to us, that if we held Governor Bullock's precarious position, we would act with more forethought and care, as a pure question of policy. No functionary can sustain himself by violating law and by setting himself against the moral sense of a community. Let alone acts of undeniable criminality, even matters of indiscretion, ignorance and precipitation, must injure an official.

With almost a unanimity of the people of Georgia against him, distrustful of his ability and integrity, and believing him a partizan, he is peculiarly exposed to adverse criticism, and should steer a finely managed course.

But instead of this, even with a favorable public, his management has been such as to subject him to grave censure.

Take the example of the negro, tried at the last term of Worth Court, for murder, found guilty and sentenced to be hung. His sentence has been commuted to one year's confinement in the Penitentiary.

The Albany News says:

This was a most horrible and brutal murder, and a criminal never more justly deserved the extreme punishment of the law.

Take also the cases of Cæsar Wiggings and Isaac Brown, sentenced to death for the murder of Fredrick Brodbaker, whose sentence is commuted to one year in the Penitentiary.

The Savannah Republican, in the following, says:

Neither the testimony on the trial, nor the additional facts which might have been, and can now be proved by unimpeachable testimony, sustain the reasons given by the Governor for his action in the premises.

The Republican details the facts of the case, which show that these murderers were part of a band of organized robbers, and the murders they committed had an additional tinge of criminality, in the fact that they were committed to break up a police force that bid fair to check their rascalities.

There is food for grave reflection in this matter. It is fraught with weighty results for evil to our common welfare.

It has been our aim to use no indiscriminate abuse against any men, even those we condemn unstintedly. Our object is to strike what is wrong, and to strike with that effect due to condemnation by an honest, careful, thinking judgment. There is a harsh, violent, wholesale manner of opposition that carries no weight, because it savors too much of personal prejudice, and is expected, as a matter of course, while its rancor stirs bitter antangonism. It can do no justice to an enemy, and hence its disapproval is weakened.

Much as we are against the Radical party and its functionaries, we never expect to belabor it when it does a good thing. Too much harm has resulted from the opposite course. It is time for journals to be just.

The effect of this practice of pardoning heinous criminals must inevitably lead to the undermining of law—to the enhancement of crime, to the frightful spread of social disorder, to the emasculation of justice, and by inspiring a contempt for courts, produce the disposition to personal retribution for wrong—a matter more deadly to civil quiet than any bad practice of society.

We urge this matter upon Governor Bullock in the cool language of a calm criticism, that subduing any natural tendency to hot displeasure, discusses the subject upon high considerations of duty and right, that must reach any man, not wholly deprived.

DISTRICT COLUMBIA.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Col. Robb, Collector of Customs at Savannah is here. The Secretary and Treasurer has placed at his disposal the revenue cutter, McCulloch, until the Nansamond, now at Baltimore repairing, is serviceable.

Revenue to-day, nearly one million and a half of dollars; for the week, over eight millions of dollars.

The President has appointed John Deitrich Collector of Customs at Valasca, Texas, vice Wayley, suspended.

Distillers licensed to make spirits from grain, may distil fruit without increasing the tax liabilities, but cannot claim exemptions attaching to establishment exclusively devoted to fruit distillation.

No fractional currency has been issued this week.

All spirits forfeited from having been left in bonded warehouses after the first of July, is ordered sold. The Collector gets five per cent. commission.

The Cubans here have the following letters, received from prominent Cuban officers via Nassau and Key West, bringing dates to the first. The intelligence of the arrest of the Cuban Junta, and others, in New York, produced the most profound impression of surprise and regret. No other news could have caused such a feeling of despondency. One of the writers says: "It came like news of the death of your nearest and best friend—your only friend. The feeling of all seemed to be, that we were alone, and must expect no assistance. However, all seeing that it is now liberty or death—for no mercy can be expected from the Spaniards—fight as only men driven to such desperation can fight.

Letona, who succeeded Lesca at Neuvitas and Puerto Principe is reported to have lost two hundred troops by desertion to Quesada.

Deserters report the disaffection among the Spanish troops to be increasing, caused by the frequent changes of Commanders of Posts, and quarrels of regimental officers. Frequent collisions occur between the outposts without serious loss on either side.

The Cubans claim an advantage of position and earnestness on the part of their troops.

The Spanish commanders continue to execute all prisoners immediately after capture. Even those who are wounded are executed on the field. Quesada has hitherto respected the rights of prisoners. This policy is giving dissatisfaction in his camp. His followers demand retaliation.

Public Printer Clapp in replying to the Committee of Book Binders regarding the employment of apprentices, denies the right of any private organization to dictate to the Government.

The journeymen Carpenters' Association of this city, inserted the word white in their Constitution, thus excluding blacks from membership.

The Conservatives of Mississippi and Texas are not hopeless of receiving an earlier election day than that ordered at a Cabinet meeting yesterday, and one which will not interfere so much with cotton picking. It appears that Mr. Boutwell, in the Cabinet Council, thought the proposed day would be the earliest of the season.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, July 10.—Further telegrams confirm the account of great floods in Colorado Valley, Texas. The water is ten feet deep in court house square, La-Grange. It is estimated that twenty-five houses have been seen passing down the stream. The river still rising. Staging has been stopped four days. The town of Columbus is entirely surrounded by water. Brazos river is also very full and rising at the rate of four inches per hour.

Home Testimony

COMPLIMENTARY TO

DR. J. A. HUNTER,

From his Patients in Atlanta.

We have much pleasure in expressing our high appreciation of Dr. J. A. Hunter's skill and ability, as a physician in diseases of the Head, Throat, Lungs and Heart, and consider his methods of treating these diseases superior to the means ordinarily employed.

We speak from personal knowledge and experience, and believe his efforts here will supply a want long felt in this part of the country, and recommend those who may require his services to give him a call.

COMPLIMENTARY TO DR. HUNTER.—We publish a card in another column, complimenty to Dr. Hunter, signed by several of our best citizens, who are under his professional care for affections of the Throat, Lungs or Heart.

Dr. Hunter comes from New Orleans, where he has a large practice during the winter months, and has been in our midst only about one month, yet, within that brief space of time he has established an enviable reputation, both as a physician and gentleman, and we believe deserves the confidence of the public. He has undoubtedly, by improved methods of treatment, conjoined to a long and active experience, succeeded in successfully combating a class of diseases hitherto believed to be incurable, and we trust that those who avail themselves of his professional services during the remainder of his stay here, will experience equally happy results.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

DR. HUNTER

Can be consulted at the National Hotel, Atlanta, upon all diseases of the Head, Throat, Lungs and Heart.

As the remaining period of Dr. Hunter's stay here is limited, those who desire to consult him, should do so at once.

[OFFICIAL.]

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., July 8, 1869.

To the Principal Keeper of the Penitentiary:

WHEREAS, At the May term of the Superior Court, held in and for the county of Chatham, A. D. 1869, Henry Miller and Abraham Screven, were severally tried for, and convicted of, the crime of burglary in the night time, and were then, and there, therefor, sentenced, each, by the Judge presiding at said Court, to be imprisoned in the Penitentiary of this State for and during the term of five years; and

Whereas, it appears from a careful examination of the testimony adduced upon their several trials, that the conviction was founded solely upon the insufficient testimony of one Allen Williams, who testified only as to having seen the accused near the place of the burglary, in possession of property alleged to have been stolen, and whose testimony fails to establish the fact, that the accused entered, or broke into, the store from which the goods are alleged to have been stolen; and

Whereas, it further appears from said testimony, that the accused established an alibi, by the unimpeached evidence of several witnesses; and

Whereas, the said Allen Williams, upon whose evidence the accused were convicted, has, since their conviction, made the following affidavit, to-wit:

"STATE OF GEORGIA—CHATHAM COUNTY:

"Before me, Robert J. Wade, a Justice of the "Peace, in and for said county and State, perso-"nally came and appeared, Allen Williams, col-"ored, of said county, who on oath saith, that on "the 17th day of May, 1869, at the May term of the "Superior Court, Chatham county, he gave testi-"mony, as a witness for the State, against Henry "Miller, colored, and Abraham Screven, colored, "both tried and convicted of the offense of bur-"glary. Deponent further saith, that the testi-"mony which he gave on said trial, was not true; "but that he was compelled to give the same by "threats, and under the punishment of being "starved to death, for that one William Wray, a de-"tective officer of said city, did say to this deponent, "when he was arrested and imprisoned in the Po-"lice Barracks, that he, deponent, must testify to "the facts which he did give upon the trial of the "said Miller and Screven, and upon failure so to "do, he, William Wray, would starve him, and "send him to the Penitentiary; and deponent fur-"ther saith, that he did not receive anything to "eat for one day and a half; and on account of "such treatment he was compelled to give the tes-"timony which he did; and deponent further "saith, that on the night of the alleged burglary "he was not with, nor never saw, the said Miller "and Screven, and, therefore, does not know who "committed the burglary; and deponent further "saith that he comes before me and makes this af-"fidavit voluntarily, and without being advised "or threatened so to do; and that he makes this "affidavit because he feels he has done an injus-"tice to the said Miller and Screven, and there-"fore invokes upon a Just Providence to forgive "him of one of the most unfortunate acts of his "life.

"Sworn to, and subscribed before me, this 21st "day of June, 1869.

"ROBERT J. WADE,
[SEAL.] "Justice of the Peace,
Chatham County."

And Whereas, It is made known to me, that a motion for a new trial was made by the counsel for the accused, upon the ground that the verdicts of the juries before whom the causes were tried, were contrary to evidence, and decidedly and strongly against the weight of evidence, in that said verdicts were not sustained by the evidence elicited before said juries, the State having failed to prove the guilt of the accused; and that the Judge presiding at said Court, refused said application for new trials:

Now, therefore, in consideration of the facts and circumstances aforesaid, and to the end that injustice may not be done to the innocent and the guiltless: It is ORDERED, That the said Henry Miller and Abraham Screven be, and they are hereby, fully and freely pardoned of the crime of which they stand convicted; that they and each of them, be restored to their civil rights as citizens of this State, and that they be forthwith discharged and set at liberty.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Executive Department, at the Capitol, in the city of Atlanta, the day and year first above written.

RUFUS B. BULLOCK,
Governor.

By the Governor:
EUGENE DAVIS,
Secretary Executive Department.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA:::::::JULY 11.

Supreme Court—Evening Session.

Reported Expressly for The Constitution.]

SATURDAY, July 10, 1869.

Argument was resumed in No. 13, by Col. McCutchins. He was replied to by Judge Walker.

No. 14, is the last case on the Cherokee Circuit. It is F. M. Street vs. E. C. Lyneh. Equity, from Dade.

Tatum & Dabney, for plaintiff in error.

Graham and D. A. Walker, for defendant in error.

On the conclusion of this cause, Court adjourned till 10 o'clock, A. M., Tuesday morning next. Monday is consultation day as usual.

CORN.—The market was bare of corn yesterday, and prices were stiff at $1.25.

MELONS.—The market is well supplied with watermelons and cantaloupes, which bring fair prices.

ARE your teeth decaying, and do you wish them saved? If so, call on Dr. E. B. Marshall, Lawshe's building, Whitehall street. His work can be relied on.

THE WEATHER.—The Thermometer stood as follows yesterday inside of Redwine & Fox's Store, nine o'clock, eighty-three; eleven, eighty-six; two, ninety-one; four, ninety-six.

RAIN.—Rain is greatly needed in Atlanta. The dust in the streets is as light and fine as ashes.

GO-IT.—We saw a pair of goats harnessed to a small wagon the other day going up Marietta street, leisurely with a barrel of flour and other articles.

COL. RUSH IRWIN.—Col. Irwin leaves today or to-morrow for a visit to his native State, Kentucky; and will be absent for several weeks. A safe trip and a speedy return, Colonel.

F. M. JACK.—This renowned confectioner has reduced the wholesale price of crackers to eight cents per pound, and of his candies to twenty cents per pound. His brand on an article is accepted as a guarantee of its excellent quality. Purchasers will find it to their advantage to give him a call.

BISHOP GEORGE F. PIERCE.—This eminent divine will preach at Wesley Chapel this morning at the usual hour. The public needs no invitation to go and hear the Bishop.

He will also preach at Trinity at night.

BEAUTIFUL SIGN.—A very handsome sign was adjusted at Dr. Foster's rooms in the Empire Block yesterday. It is the work of Jno. Clarke and does credit to his shop. The sign covers the entire space between the windows and contains the announcement: "Dr. J. M. Foster, physician-special for the relief and cure of Deafness, Catarrh," &c. Dr. Foster's infirmary has become a fixture in Atlanta, and his practice has increased steadily as his abilities are daily more appreciated.

PERSONAL.—Hon. Nathan Bass of Macon, and J. H. King, Esq., of Dalton, were stopping at the United States Hotel yesterday.

COL. SAMUEL WELL.—The many friends of Col. Well, will be rejoiced to learn that he has so far recoved, as to be enabled to start for Europe.

COL. L. P. GRANT.—Col. L. P. Grant, Superintendent of the Atlanta and West Point Railroad, left for Europe, on Friday night, and will be absent some two months.

CLOSED.—The Atlanta Slander Mill is closed for the present, while the "runners" are being "picked." The Smutter, however, is in active operation.

LITHONIA SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The Lithonia Sun [illegible] school, had a picnic excursion to Stone Mountain yesterday.

MRS. J. S. THRASHER.—The Macon Telegraph announces the death, in New York, on the 9th, of Mrs. J. S. Thrasher, well-known in this city, as an accomplished and amiable lady. She died, from inflammation of the bowels, after three days illness.

UNCLE BILLY HILL.—We regret to learn, that Uncle Billy Hill, the renowned Auctioneer, is confined to his room, by severe indisposition. We trust that he may be speedily restored to health.

THE RAILROAD PICNIC.—The picnic given to the employees of the Georgia, and Atlanta and West Point Railroads yesterday, was a decided success. A train of thirteen, well filled cars, left about eight o'clock, yesterday morning, for Stone Mountain, and from the number of plethoric baskets that were put on board, we conjecture that all hands had a good time generally. Gen. G. Tige Anderson commanded the entire corps with as much skill and gallantry, as in days of yore, upon other fields.

"The Tub Race" at Savannah.

This feature was a novel and amusing one. Among the entries were the following: Phœbe Ann, Eureka, Roaring Gimlet, Pocahontas, Captain Smith, Champagne Charlie, Josh Billings, Ku Klux, Captain Jinks, Mrs. Partington, and John Brown.

These craft comprised every imaginable form of tub, from the common wash tub to a half hogshead, and when brought out, presented a most grotesque appearance. The only rule of the race was that if a party fell out, he should swim the rest of the race and carry his tub along with him.

Notwithstanding the desperate attempt of half a dozen aspirants to fame in this peculiar line of sport, the prize, a plated butter tub, containing a bar of soap, was given to Mr. James Wall, on behalf of the tub called the "Roaring Gimlet," entered by Mr. Thomas H. Laird, our worthy Harbor Master. The scene at one time was beyond description, especially after the start. Laughter ruled, and sides were held for fear of danger. Adventurous youths falling overboard from their tubs—others swimming to regain lost tubs; tubs afloat without an owner; owners vainly endeavoring to find tubs; tubs upside down; others right side up; half naked individuals vainly swimming after tubs; tubs with bottoms leaky; tubs in which their owners could not sit upright; tubs disposed to turn over, which was a fault with the great majority of them, to the infinite amusement of all. The watches themselves stopped to look on and enjoy the sport, and hence the time of this famous race will not go down to posterity.—Sav. Republican.

[OFFICIAL.]

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., July 9th, 1869.

To the Sheriff, his Lawful Deputy, or the Jailor of Worth County:

WHEREAS, At the April Adjourned Term of the Superior Court, held in and for the county of Worth, A. D. 1869, George Fowler was tried for and convicted of the crime of murder, and was then and there, therefor, sentenced by the Judge presiding at said Court, to be executed by hanging by the neck until dead, on the 9th day of July, A. D. 1869; and,

WHEREAS, An examination of the evidence adduced upon said trial, discloses the fact that the conviction was founded solely upon the testimony of one witness, whose statements are confused, and in many respects contradictory and improbable, and that the said witness was not nearer than seventy-five yards to the parties at the time of the alleged killing; and

WHEREAS, It further appears, that the evidence adduced upon said trial as aforesaid was not of a character to demonstrate the fact, that the condemned had any premeditated intention to take the life of the deceased, but rather that the homicide was the result of a sudden impulse of passion on the part of the condemned, while engaged in conversation with the deceased, and that, therefore, had the verdict of the jury been strictly in accordance with the evidence elicited before them, the conviction would have been for manslaughter only; and,

WHEREAS, It further appears, from said testimony, that the deceased had, on several occasions, announced a firm determination to take the life of the condemned on sight; and,

WHEREAS, It is alleged by responsible parties that the Sheriff of the said county of Worth interfered in such a manner as to excite the feelings of the people against the condemned before and during the trial, and influenced the selection of jurors to the prejudice of the condemned; and,

WHEREAS, Respectable and responsible citizens, well informed as to all the facts and evidence in the case, certify on oath, and that they do not believe, that had the condemned been a white man, he would have been condemned and sentenced to be hung under similar circumstances and upon the same evidence:

NOW, THEREFORE, In consideration of the facts and circumstances aforesaid, and to the end that impartial justice may be done, I, RUFUS B BULLOCK, Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy of this State, and of the militia thereof, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by the Constitution and laws of this State, do hereby commute the said sentence of capital punishment so passed upon the said George Fowler, as aforesaid, to imprisonment in the Penitentiary of this State, for and during the term of one year, from the 9th day of July, A. D., 1869; then and thereafter, namely, on the 9th day of July, A. D., 1870, to be discharged, and restored to his civil rights as a citizen of this State; and

It is merely ordered, That the Principal Keeper of said Penitentiary, forthwith cause the said George Fowler to be conveyed to, and confined in, said Penitentiary, in pursuance of and in compliance with the commuted sentence aforesaid.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Executive Department, at the Capitol in Atlanta, the day and year first above written.

RUFUS B BULLOCK, Governor.

EUGENE DAVIS,
Secretary Executive Department.

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Manufacturer and Vendor of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

—OR—

Chills and Fever.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southwestern country for testimony to the truth of the assertion, and in no case whatever will it fail to cure, if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. If is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of BULL'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To my United States and World-wide Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER:

VILLANOW, Walker Co., Ga., June 29, 1866.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the oldest authors that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s, but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficacious, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to alleviate suffering humanity which I may be able to command—not hesitating because some one more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

Bull's Sarsaparilla

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACK'S, Mo., April 30 1866

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparrilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. Am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. P. JOHNSON
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1865, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Captain Johnson:

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. S Johnson, was a skillful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died, leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a severe attack of diarrhœa and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. IT CURED HIM. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, fever sores and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of trying a spurious article, hence his writing to you for it. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully, JENNIE JOHNSON

ARKANSAS HEARD FROM.

Testimony of Medical Men

STONY POINT, White Co., Ark., May 22, 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and I got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters.

My son-in-law, who was with me in the store, has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them and he also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—he improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed, the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines this fall, especially of your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care Rickett & Neely.

MESSRS. ADAIR & BRO., Atlanta, Ga.—GENTLEMEN: We received yours a few days since, requesting a statement of the merits of the Gullett Gin purchased of you last year. I have to say of this Gin that it is decidedly the best Gin of which we have any knowledge. The workmanship of the machine is very superior, every part of it being made with great care, and the boxes and shafts being set in a cast iron frame, admitting of no springing or working. It runs with a smoothness and nicelty seldom attained in such machines. The improvements of this Gin are: 1st, it takes the dirt and trash out of the cotton. 2d. It, by means of the steel brush wheel, combs out the lint, and renders the fibre much longer than the ordinary Gin, or, at least, makes the cotton show a much longer fibre. These two improvements gives cotton ginned on this Gin, we think, fully the advantage of 1½ cents per pound in value over cotton of the same kind ginned on the ordinary gin; and when the cotton in the seed is very trashy and dirty, or contains a great many hard locks, it may add more to the market value of the lint. We could perceive no difference between the draught of this Gin and the old one we replaced by it of the same number of saws. The Gullett Gin certainly deserves the attention of planters.

Very respectfully,
J. C. & R. GARLINGTON.

SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR Medicine for Dyspepsia, Headache Jaundice, Costiveness, Camp Dysentery, sick Headache, Chronic Diarrhœa, Affections of the Bladder and Kidneys, Fever, Nervousness, Bilis, Diseases of the Skin, Impurity of the Blood Melancholy or Depression of Spirits.

Most of the ailments here enumerated have their origin in a diseased liver, which is the most prevalent affection in this country, and as in many cases the patient is not within the reach of a physician, it requires that some remedy should be provided that would not in the least impair the constitution, and yet be active and safe. That such is the character of the SIMMONS REGULATOR there can be no doubt, which the testimony of hundreds will establish.

SYMPTOMS OF A DISEASED

LIVER. Pain in the side. Sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade is mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness, bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternating with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred when few of them existed, yet examination of the body after death has shown the Liver to have been extensively deranged.

It should be used by all persons, old and young, whenever any of the foregoing symptoms appear. It is a purely vegetable compound, is not injurious to the most delicate constitutions, and will keep the liver in healthy action if used properly.

Persons living in unhealthy localities may avoid all bilious attacks by taking a dose occasionally to keep the liver in healthy action.

Regulator For children complaining of colic, headache, or sick stomach a teaspoonful or more will give relief. Children, as well as adults, eat sometimes too much supper, or eat something which does not digest well, producing sour stomach, heart-burn, or restlessness; a good dose will give relief. This applies to persons of all ages.

Many persons, from eating too much, are restless at night, or in day time hoarse, wool-gathering, can't understand what they read, can't keep their thoughts on any one subject so as to reason well, or become fretful. One or two tablespoonful will give relief.

Jaundice. Take enough Regulator after eating each meal to produce one full action from the bowels every day.

Pregnant ladies will find sure relief from their headache, costiveness, swimming in the head, colic, sour stomach, restlessness, etc., etc.

DR. HUNTER

CONTINUES to treat all privates diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Orchitis, and all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produces some of the following effects: as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, constipation, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally prostration of the vital powers, can be fully restored to health. Persons afflicted with this, or any other delicate, intricate, or long standing constitutional complaint, should give the Doctor a trial. He never fails.

The Doctor publishes a medical circular that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at his office, or by mail for one stamp. It gives a clear delineation of all the diseases and conditions resulting from the infringement of the moral laws, excesses, indulgences, exposures, and imprudences in married or single life. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten apartments, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others, daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own Laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlet at office free or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. than can be obtained elsewhere in the city.

The "Tilton style" Buggy, for workmanship and material has NO EQUAL, except the "Tilton" buggy. My Repository, one of the largest in the city, possesses the advantage in its location of costing less than half the rent of those up town, I can therefore offer my vehicles at less price.

Those who have had my work require no references; but to those unacquainted I would respectfully refer to:

Messrs. J. H. Brower & Co., Sissilwood, Hoffkiss & Co., and Betts, Nichols & Co., New York.

For my new style of slide seat Buggy I refer to Messrs. Jno. M. Clarke & Son, attorneys of Atlanta, Ga., who have recently purchased one.
